

SINGLETREE.
BROOKLINE.

June 1 1907

My dear Miss Clarke

Thank you very much for your kind letter. I would like to see Mrs Dall's book and, if agreeable to you, will come to your house on Tuesday morning next at about 11 o'clock, to look at it. Will you kindly leave it out and then I shall be no trouble to anyone. It is This hour is not convenient, I will come on Tuesday at what hour you say.

Sincerely Yours

Elisabeth R. Lyman